21ST CENTURY PEACEBUILDING

UPF and its global network of Ambassadors for Peace bring universal, spiritual principles to the task of resolving conflict and reconciling the divided human family.

International Leadership Conferences, symposia, and peace councils offer opportunities for high-level consultations. These are complemented by “track two” diplomacy and grass-roots programs that build support for a culture of peace.

WELCOME

OUR human family's great saints, sages, spiritual leaders, philosophers, visionaries, mothers and fathers, statesmen, and people of conscience from all walks of life have longed for and worked for peace. The hope of all ages has been for a unified world of peace.

We cannot abandon this hope and we must not fail to take all necessary steps to assure that the legacy of so many noble predecessors is fulfilled. In this way our children and all future generations will come to know a world of peace and only peace.

This is the purpose of the Universal Peace Federation and the mission of the Ambassadors for Peace. Thank you for your investment for the cause of peace.

Interfaith dialogue encourages understanding, respect, and cooperation, recognizing that we are all members of one family under God.

INTERFAITH COUNCILS

Peace is advanced when religious leaders bring the resources of heart and conscience to the tasks of conflict resolution and peacebuilding. On local, national, and global levels, interfaith councils enable people of faith to contribute their wisdom and work effectively for peace alongside government, business, and civil society.

UPF's character education curriculum offers comprehensive moral education for students ages 6-18. Textbooks and teacher manuals feature stories about moral development and interactive exercises.

Participants in World Peace Marriage Blessing ceremonies make a sacred promise of mutual love and faithfulness. International and interreligious couples pledge to bridge divides of culture, race, and religion for the sake of peace.
